

MEDICAL AND CHIRURGICAL FACULTY

began practice near Glymont, Md., but moved to Washington, D. C. He resided at 1212 K Street N. W., Washington, D. C. Died, 1899, of Bright's Disease.

CHAPMAN, PEARSON, JR. 1875. Born at Glymont, Md., August 5, 1840; son of Pearson Chapman. Educated at Charlotte Hall Academy, and Jefferson College, Cannonsburg, Pa.; M.D., University of Maryland, 1865; began practice at Baltimore, 1870; Vaccine Physician, Baltimore, 1873; moved to Perryman's, Harford County, Md., 1876, where he still resides.

CHAPPELEAR, HARRY C. 1899. Born at Hughesville, Charles County, Md., May 16, 1873. Educated at Charlotte Hall Military Academy; M.D., University of Maryland, 1897; a Justice of the Peace; practices at Hughesville, Md.

*CHAPPELL, PHILIP S. 1829. M.D., Washington Medical College, Baltimore, 1829. Of Baltimore. See lists of 1848 and 1853.

*CHATARD, FERDINAND EDME. 1830. Born at Baltimore, August 3, 1805. A.B., St. Mary's College, Baltimore, 1824; pupil of his father (Dr. Pierre Chatard); M.D., University of Maryland, 1826; studied three years in Europe. Died at Baltimore, October 18, 1888.

*CHATARD, FERDINAND EDME, JR. 1878. Born at Baltimore, October 7, 1830; son of F. E. Chatard. A.B., Mount St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, 1858; A.M., Mount St. Mary's College, 1860; M.D., University of Maryland, 1861; Resident Physician, Almshouse, 1861-62; studied in Europe two and one-half years; Lecturer on the Diseases of Women and Children, Summer Course, University of Maryland, and Attending Physician to Special Dispensary, 1866; President, Clinical Society of Maryland, 1877-78; Vice-President, Medical and Chirurgical Faculty, 1877-78; Professor of Diseases of Children, Baltimore Polyclinic, 1884; Consulting Physician, St. Joseph's Hospital; Consulting Physician, Baltimore Eye, Ear and Throat Charity Hospital; Medical Director, Maryland Life Insurance Company. Died at Baltimore, August 27, 1900.

*CHATARD, PIERRE. 1801 (?). Born at Cape François, San Domingo, July 18, 1767. Licentiate in Arts, College of Toulouse, France, 1785; M.D., University of Montpellier, France, 1788; at Hotel Dieu, Paris, 1788-90; pupil of Dessault; arrived at Wilmington, Del.,